Moderato

Down in Dix - ie where the cot - ton's grow - ing, Down in Dix - ie is the I'll be might - y hap - py when I meet her, I'll be might y hap - py place I'm go - ing got - a sweet - heart wait - ing there for me, when I greet her with a great big hug and kiss for me,

And she plays on a grand pi - a - no, She can make the bird - ies And a smile that will make me hap - py, I've a tick - et and I'll in the trees sing pret - ty songs and mel o dies, soon be leav - ing so I'll say "good - bye" to - day,

I'm bound for Dix - ie - land a hap - py time is wait - ing me,
When you're in Dix - ie - land be sure to drop a - round my way,

CHORUS

I've got a grand ba - by with a ba - by grand way down in Dix - ie - land, And she's wait - ing there I said she's wait - ing there for me to claim her hand, When she plays and she sways on those iv - o - ries

I just lose all con - troll of men - tal - i - ties You ought to hear her play,

You ought to hear her play, She'll car - ry you a - way, and when she plays some Jazz some rag - y drag - y Jazz thats how she gets the best of me, For it brings me back to dear old child - hood days and to my dear old mother's knee Lit - tle house lit - tle lot where the ros - es grow lit - tle love lit - tle kiss lit - tle "dog" or so and a grand ba - by with a ba - by grand way down in Dix - ie - land. I've got a land.
 I've got A. A.

I just love to hear her when she starts to play, her I just love Grand Op - era love Grand Rap - ids too, you snap-py lit-tle mus-ic just car-ries me a-way, I've heard Pad-e-rew-ski ought to hear her play-ing up-on an Ir-ish stew, when she plays a shimmie she play a rap-so-dy but he could nev-er play some Jazz the sure-ly takes the cake, she qui-vers like the jel-ly that my way she plays for me, moth-er used to make I've got a grand ba-by with a ba-by grand way down in Dix-ie-land.
